CONGRESS IS IN SESSION

Law-Making Body of the United States Convened Yesterday.

THE MANY NOTABLE FIGURES

Henderson of Iowa Again Elected Speaker of the House—Tons of Rare Flowers.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 2.—A profusion of floral offerings, quite unusual in quantity, in variety and in beauty today transformed the senate chamber into a veritable flower show. Almost every member of the body was the recipient of one or more of these evidences of the regard of his friends and the atmosphere of the chamber was heavy with the odor of rare plants and blossoms. The display of chrysanthemums was notably beautiful, many of the specimens being of the choicest varieties.

Since the adjournment of the senate last spring, the chamber has been redecorated and re-carpeted. The principal features of its beauty and individuality have been retained, but they have been added to by the artistic decorations. A bright green carpet with old gold figures has taken the place of the old gold carpet and the desks and furnishings of the chamber have been notably improved.

An hour before noon both the public galleries were thronged with spectators, every available inch of standing room being occupied. Senators assembled slowly, Mr. Keane of New Jersey, being the first senator to appear in the chamber. He was closely followed by Mr. Tillman of South Carolina and Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts, who soon after took his seat and buried himself in a newspaper. The venerable Senator Vest of Missouri was in his seat twenty minutes before the body was called to order. He was accorded a most cordial reception by his colleagues. By noon practically every senator in the city had arrived in the chamber. Many of them made no attempt to reach their seats on account of the wealth of floral offerings which fairly filled the desks and aisles.

Precisely at 12 o'clock Mr. Frye of Maine, president pro tem. of the senate, rapped for order.

The blind chaplain of the senate, Rev. Mr. Millburn, then delivered the following invocation:

"God of our Fathers, thy servants of this chamber are come together at the opening of the Fifty Seventh congress with kindly feelings each to the other and impressed with the [illegible] as their tasks are opening before them. And yet there [illegible] to us the oppressive sense of an unmistakable loss, the departure of our friend and brother, our father and the cheer of the nation, by the hand of the assassin.

"Oh Lord God, let thy pity and grace come to all the people of this land by reason of this unspeakable calamity. And as thy servant, the widow, sits alone and bereft, may thy comfort and consolation come to her.

"And grant, oh Lord, that we may duly feel the loss and sorrow attendant upon the departure from earth of a member of this body, a senator from South Dakota. Hear our devout prayers in behalf of thy servant, the senior senator from New Jersey, (Mr. Sewall) and grant that the means that are used for his recovery to health may be blest by thee and may he come to his place upon this floor again crowned with thy loving kindness.

"Grant thy grace to every member of this body and to all who are dear to them and so may the light and favor of God, our Father, be with us all now and evermore. Amen."

Credentials were presented of Charles H. Dietrich and Joseph H. Millard of Nebraska; Alfred B. Kittredge of South Dakota and Paris Gibson of Montana. Mr. Frye administered to them the oath of office.

Formal resolutions were offered by Mr. Cullom of Illinois that the house be notified that the senate was ready to proceed to business; by Mr. Allison that the meeting of the senate be 12 o'clock noon, and by Mr. Hale of Maine, that a committee of two senators be named to join a similar committee of the house to inform the president that congress was in session and prepared to receive any message that he might desire to submit.

Mr. Hale and Mr. Morgan of Alabama were named as the committee.

Mr. McLaurin of South Carolina, offered a joint resolution authorizing the admission free of duty of imports of articles intended to be exhibited at the Charleston exposition and the transfer of the government exhibits at the Buffalo exposition to the Charleston exposition.

Mr. Hoar objected to immediate consideration, saying it was the universal practice of the senate to transact no business until the president had been informed that congress was prepared to do business. The resolution was withdrawn temporarily.

Recess was taken until 2 o'clock, but no report of the organization of the house being received at that hour Mr. Gamble of South Dakota, formally announced the death of Senator Kyle of that state on the first of last July. He offered the usual resolution expressive of the sorrow of the senate, and after its adoption, the senate, as an additional mark of respect, adjourned until tomorrow.

HENDERSON RE-ELECTED SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 2. The opening day of the first session of the Fifty-seventh congress in the house of representatives, presented a spectacle that delighted the crowded galleries. The machinery of the house is cumbrous and is set in motion by a laborious process, but the spectators today evidently did not consider it tedious, as they clung to their seats through the entire proceedings which lasted four and one-half hours, probably half the time being consumed in the monotonous calling of the roll.

The organization of the house was accomplished according to time honored precedents. Speaker Henderson was sworn in by General Bingham, "the father of the house," and after delivering a very graceful speech in recognition of the honor bestowed upon him he in turn administered the oath to the members-elect. The usual committees were appointed to inform the president and the senate that the house was organized and ready to do business; a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Payne, Bingham and Richardson, was appointed to join a similar committee of the senate and wait upon the president and inform him that congress was ready to receive any communication he might have to make; the rules of the last house were adopted after a slight jar and then the biennial seat drawing occurred. This latter ceremony was robbed of much of its interest today by the fact that under the new arrangements of seats there are [illegible] enough to go round, and those whose names are drawn last, do not suffer as they did on former occasions.

The flower show, which is the great feature of the opening day was not as large as usual. More flowers than [illegible] were sent to members but after the seat drawing the house adjourned before a third of them were carried into the hall.

At 12 o'clock one of the assistant doorkeepers, standing at the clerk's desk, warned those on the floor that were not entitled to be there must retire. Mr. Wilcox, the swarthy delegate from Hawaii, and Mr. Degetau, the delegate from Puerto Rico, attracted attention as they moved through the throng on the floor. Every chair [illegible] except in the diplomatic and executive galleries was occupied when at 12 o'clock Mr. McDowell, clerk of the house, brought his gavel down, the buzz of conversation ceased and the clerk announced that prayer would be offered. The members and many of the spectators arose and stood with bowed heads while Rev. Mr. Couden, the blind chaplain, invoked the divine blessing. He referred feelingly to the death of President McKinley.

The roll of members elect was then called by states, amid an ever-increasing uproar of voices as conversation became general throughout the hall. When the clerk announced that 318 members, a quorum, had answered to their names, Mr. Lacey of Iowa, moved that the house proceed by viva voce vote to the election of a speaker. The motion being carried, Mr. Cannon of Illinois, chairman of the Republican caucus placed in nomination General Henderson of Iowa, amid a salvo of applause from the entire Republican membership.

Mr. Hay of Virginia, chairman of the Democratic caucus, amid loud Democratic applause, presented the name of Mr. Richardson of Tennessee. A general laugh followed as Mr. Neville of Nebraska, placed in nomination Mr. Stark of his own state, who is now the only other Populist, acting independently. Messrs. Rumple, Rep. of Iowa; McClellan, Dem. of New York; Bates, Rep. of Pennsylvania, and Maddox, Dem., of Georgia, were appointed tellers. The result was:

Henderson, 199; Richardson, 149; Stark, 1; Cummins of New York, 1. Messrs. Richardson, Stark and Cummins were appointed a committee to escort the speaker to the chair. As General Henderson appeared two minutes later on the arm of Mr. Richardson, the speaker was greeted with a great outburst of applause from both sides of the house. Mr. Richardson introduced him in half a dozen words. The speaker addressed the house briefly, saying:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: This high honor that you have conferred upon me I profoundly appreciate. All the more do I appreciate it, coming as it does with this generous expression from both sides of the chamber. There is yet left another method for a presiding officer to express his appreciation of such an honor. That is, by a kindly, firm and faithful administration of the law and the rules that govern this body. It will be my aim to discharge impartially the duties of this office. As I said at the opening of the last congress, no presiding officer can successfully administer the duties of his office unless he has the support of the body over which he presides. I asked for it then; you gave it to me throughout the entire congress. Permit me once more to invoke that patience, kind and splendid support which was accorded to me in the last congress.

"The maker of laws should not be a breaker of laws. We proceed under law and rules; and the duties devolving upon each and all of the membership of this house will be far better conserved if this principle is kept in mind and acted upon.

"Again, sincerely thanking you each and all, I am ready to take the prescribed oath of office." (Applause.)

The honor of administering the oath of office to the speaker fell to Mr. Bingham of Pennsylvania, the oldest member of the house in point of continuous service.

The speaker then in turn administered the oath to the members elect. They came forward in state delegations as their names were called. At the conclusion of the ceremony the speaker laid before the house the resignation of Nicholas Muller, as a representative from the Seventh congressional district of New York to take effect December 1.

Mr. Cannon of Illinois, then presented the following resolution for the election of officers of the house:

"Resolved, That Alexander McDowell of Pennsylvania, be and hereby is chosen clerk of the house of representatives; that Henry Casson of Wisconsin, be and is hereby chosen sergeant-at-arms; that William Glennan of New York, be and is hereby chosen doorkeeper; that Joseph C. McElroy of Ohio, be and is hereby chosen postmaster, and that H. N. Couden of Michigan, be and is hereby chosen chaplain."

Mr. Hay of Virginia, on behalf of the minority, presented a substitute resolution containing the names of the candidates selected by the Democratic caucus last Saturday. The minority resolution was voted down and Mr. Cannon's resolution was adopted without division.

The usual formal resolutions to notify the president and senate that the house had selected Mr. Henderson as speaker and Mr. McDowell as clerk were adopted.

Mr. Bingham, Pennsylvania, offered a resolution for appointment by the speaker of a committee of three to join a similar committee of the senate to wait upon the president and notify him that a quorum of the two houses had assembled and that congress was ready to receive any communication he might have to make. The resolution was adopted and the speaker appointed Messrs. Payne of New York, Bingham of Pennsylvania, and Richardson of Tennessee.

Mr. Dalzell then offered the resolution agreed to by the Republican caucus on Saturday for the adoption of the rules of the last house with certain specified amendments as the rules of the present house.

This drew the first fire from the other side. Mr. Richardson inquired whether opportunity was to be given to offer amendments and on receiving a negative reply he protested against such action. He said he desired to offer some amendments which he thought would prevail if the gentleman from Iowa (Hepburn) could deliver the 40 votes which the newspapers had said he had in the Republican caucus last Saturday.

Mr. Dalzell said the proceeding was similar to that taken in the last congress. He pointed out that the rules were practically identical with those of the 51st, 54th and succeeding congresses and practically identical with those of the intervening Democratic congresses. He then yielded five minutes to Mr. Richardson who occupied the time in denouncing the rules.

Mr. Hepburn, in a five minute speech said that his views on the subject of the rules had been entertained by him for many years. He had even attempted to secure their modification in the 53rd congress which was Democratic and upon that occasion Mr. Richardson himself had bitterly opposed the change.

This sally raised a shout of laughter on the Republican side.

The previous question was ordered, 176 to 143.

Mr. Richardson moved to commit the resolution to the committee on rules, which was lost, 142 to 185.

The resolutions were then adopted.

Twelve o'clock noon was fixed as the daily hour of meeting. Then the seat drawing took place.

Mr. Robb and Champ Clark, both of Missouri, and both Democrats, were the first names called. Mr. Gibson of Tennessee and Mr. Overstreet of Indiana, were the first names called on the Republican side. Unanimous consent was given that Mr. Grow, Pennsylvania, an ex-speaker of the house, and Mr. Bingham, Pennsylvania, the "Father of the house," be allowed to select their seats without drawing. Similar consent was given on behalf of Mr. Richardson and Mr. Creamer of New York, who was a member of the 43rd congress.

The name of Mr. Wachter, Republican of Maryland, was the last name called. The seat drawing concluded, the speaker assigned the contested election cases to committees, a committee on mileage headed by Reeder, Rep., of Kansas, was appointed.

A resolution was adopted to allow the importation free of payment of duty of all articles from foreign countries and the transfer of foreign exhibits from the Panamerican exposition at Buffalo, for the purpose of exhibition at the South Carolina inter-state and West Indian exposition at Charleston, S. C.

Then at 4:30 the house adjourned.

GEORGE TEBEAU MAKES THREATS

Says Burns Must Return Denver Players.

LEAGUE MEETING TOMORROW

New Circuit Will Be Organized and Colorado Springs Will Probably Be in It.

Special to the Gazette.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 2.—President Hickey, of the old Western league and the new American association, issued a call today for a meeting of the old league at St. Joseph, Wednesday, at which the affairs of the league will be closed up, the pennant awarded to Kansas City and the circuit for the new Western league formed. The call for a meeting came as somewhat of a surprise as it was expected that the meeting would be held in Kansas City sometime next week.

The new circuit will be composed of six cities and has been settled upon except in one case. Pueblo may replace Colorado Springs, but even this is very unlikely. The other towns are Denver, Lincoln, Sioux City, Des Moines and St. Joseph.

One of the important matters before the meeting will be the ratification of the sale of Colorado Springs' franchise by "Billy" Hulen to Tom Burns.

"The sale has not yet been ratified by the league," said George Tebeau yesterday, "and Burns is in no way a member of the organization. We have no desire to keep Burns out of the league, but he must be prepared to respect its constitution and by-laws and before the sale can be ratified he must return Jones and Everitt to the Denver club. I think he would make a good member and do not think he signed the men to do wrong, but I am sure he was badly advised by people who profess to know something about baseball, but in fact are entirely ignorant of the game."

President Ban Johnson of the American league has notified Hickey that the American will respect all contracts of the new American association and will not play men who have been already signed by clubs in Hickey's league. Hickey has written Johnson asking that a public statement be made.

DEFENSE IN BONINE MURDER CASE BEGUN

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 2. The defense in the case of Mrs. Lola Ida Bonine, charged with the murder of James Seymour Ayres, today began the introduction of testimony and placed 15 witnesses on the stand before the court adjourned for the day. The line of examination showed that the purpose was to establish that Mrs. Bonine evinced no particular partiality toward Ayres and that her conduct and bearing toward him differed in no respect from that displayed toward other guests of the hotel.

The first witness called was William C. Hay, who with his family, lived at the Kenmore at the time of the tragedy. He testified that the dances at the Kenmore were usually arranged by Mrs. Bonine and that at these dances her bearing toward Ayres was nothing out of the ordinary. It had been her habit, he said, when the dancers were not prompt in their attendance, to go to their rooms and urge them to come down. He said, on cross-examination that he understood that it had been Mrs. Bonine's intention to leave the hotel, but after the tragedy he had advised her that it would be improper to do so until the affair was cleared up.

Richard T. Jenks testified that he heard Mrs. Bonine giving Ayres advice against drinking to excess.

George B. Gardner, assistant attorney in the interior department to whom Mrs. Bonine first told her story, and who was one of the government witnesses, testified that on the night of the tragedy he had seen Mrs. Bonine and Ayres dining together and had seen nothing unusual in their conduct. David C. Mooney, a clerk in the sixth auditor's office, said he had seen Mrs. Bonine dance with Ayres, but saw nothing in her attitude toward him differing from that towards others. Similar testimony was given by others.

DECISION ON VALIDITY OF INSURANCE POLICY

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, Dec. 2. The validity of an insurance policy depends on the truthful answer to questions put by the company when application for insurance is made, according to an opinion handed down by the United States court of appeals today in the case of John Q. Meyers, administrator of the estate of Paul B. Swetlick of Topeka, Kan., against the Home Life Insurance company of New York. Swetlick died in November, 1892. His heirs sought to recover from the Home Insurance company $25,000 in which amount his life was insured.

At the trial of the case in the United States circuit court of Kansas, it developed in the testimony that when Swetlick applied for the policy, he answered in the negative a question put by the insurance company as to whether he had any other insurance, when in reality he had. The circuit court found for the plaintiff, and the insurance company appealed. The case was remanded for new trial.

FRY WAS FINED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY

William M. Fry, foreman of laborers who are at work on the street railway company's short line to Cheyenne cañon, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery yesterday in Justice McClelland's court. He was fined $2 and costs.

Fry and one of the workmen, F. D. Jones, had a quarrel and Fry is said to have attempted to strike Jones with a pick handle.

SHARP RETALIATION BY SHORT LINE MANAGEMENT

Goes Midland One Better in Rate War and Strikes Hard Blow at Southwestern's Biggest Monopoly in Gold Camp—Big Cut in Freight Rates.

Passenger fare between Cripple Creek district and Colorado Springs, good date of sale:

One way	50 cents.
Round trip	80 cents.

Reductions in freight tariffs as follows:

Hay, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	31½ cents.
Flour, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	32 cents.
Grain, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.
Feed, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.
Lumber, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.
Brick, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	15 cents.
Cement, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.
Lime, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.
Plaster, 5 cents per 100 lbs., reduced from	22½ cents.

The Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District railroad yesterday decided upon a course of action in retaliation upon the Denver & Southwestern for the latter's recent cut in passenger tariffs, which cut followed the Southwestern's ultimatum to the Short Line owners, to either buy the Southwestern's lines into the camp, at the Southwestern's price; sell the Short Line, agree to a consolidation which would practically efface the identity of the Short Line, or enter a rate war.

The management of the Short Line held a conference which resulted in power being given Traffic Manager S. J. Henry to take any action that he might see fit. There was no disposition to hurry a reduction in the passenger fares, the company continuing to do a good business in spite of the fact that the opposition was doing it at a trifle over one-fifth of the regular fare.

Traffic Manager Henry had his plan of action all ready, however, and immediately put it into operation and notification was made at once to General Agent A. P. Niles at Cripple Creek and to all other officers of the course that would be pursued. The step was a reduction in the passenger fare to 50 cents for one way or 80 cents for the round trip, good on date of sale, thus going the Midland one better in the cut on passenger fares.

It was when he came to the consideration of freight tariffs, however, that Traffic Manager Henry grew strong in the arm that wielded the hatchet.

As is well known, the Denver & Southwestern, which owns the lines of railway entering the gold district, excepting the Short Line, also owns the Colorado Trading and Transfer Co., which owns the biggest houses in the camp dealing in feed and building commodities, its business in these lines being in reality a monopoly, by which the people of the district are held up to the payment of extraordinary prices, a position in which the Colorado Trading and Transfer Co. is protected by the fact that the Southwestern hauls all these commodities into camp and regulates the freight charges on the same.

Reductions in tariffs on these commodities have gone into effect as stated above.

The Short Line can afford to make these cuts on these freight items inasmuch as the opposition has heretofore had a monopoly in their transportation because of its monopoly in their retailing in the district. It will compel, by this course, a reduction of the price of these commodities in Cripple Creek or a loss of trade in them to the Colorado Trading and Transfer company.

Further developments in the situation will be watched with interest.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DEPLORES RATE WAR

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Dec. 2.—The board of directors of the chamber of commerce of Cripple Creek met this evening in the office of T. P. Airheart and instructed the committee on commerce to confer with the officials of the warring railways for the purpose of having the passenger rates restored to the regular schedule. The merchants of the district deplore the rate war as a menace to their business interests.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO COLORADO RAILROADS

Special to the Gazette.

New York, Dec. 2. Interest in final developments in the Colorado railway field is again revived by the unexpected arrival today of Mr. W. K. Gillette, president of the Denver & Southwestern, and Frank Trumbull, of the Southern. In view of what has already happened in connection with Colorado railroads, in which these two officials are directly or indirectly interested, the fact that they should come to New York at practically the same time is regarded as specially significant. Nothing could be learned tonight regarding the object of their trip here, but it is understood that both gentlemen will be here for several weeks. The Colorado Southern directors have elected the former officers. As yet the Goulds do not appear in either the board of directors or the lists of officers of the Colorado Southern, but this is believed to be simply because Mr. Gould's plans have not reached that point.

It will be recalled that Mr. Gould and his associates are now directors of the Colorado Midland. The new board of this company will meet in this city December 12 to elect officers. It is expected that President Trumbull will be re-elected, but as two of the directors who were replaced by Gould men at the recent annual meeting were officers it is known that their places will be filled by representatives of George Gould. Mr. Gould is expected home from his western trip within a few days. As this trip was made so soon after his return from a trip over several of the Gould roads it is regarded as significant in the extreme. It is intimated tonight by one who should know that important announcements with respect to the Colorado roads will be made no long after Mr. Gould's return.

It was thought at one time that Colonel Dodge had plans in view which would take the Midland to Salt Lake, but the acquirement of control of this road and the Western by Gould, and Dodge's retirement at the recent election effectually disposes of this project. His sudden return lately from Europe gives color to the surmise that he has something which will mature soon. Gould and Harriman undoubtedly have formed plans for consolidating Colorado lines, but until it is definitely known what the outcome of proposed attacks on the Northern Securities company will be, these plans will be held in abeyance, but not abandoned.

TRINIDAD

(Special Correspondence.)

Trinidad, Dec. 1. Thanksgiving day was generally observed in Trinidad and business was almost entirely suspended. The churches joined in a union service at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Hawley delivering the sermon.

At the last meeting of the city council the bids were opened for the issue of $70,000 water works bonds. The bid of Spitzer & Company of Toledo for a premium of $50 above par was accepted.

Several Trinidad merchants are the victims of a forged check scheme worked by Frank E. Kenyon for amounts ranging from $20 to $100. Kenyon resided here several years ago and was considered reliable, consequently the merchants did not hesitate to cash the checks. It is estimated that he secured nearly $800.

Trinidad lost the football game at Raton on Thanksgiving day by a score of 19 to 0.

Canton Trinidad elected the following officers at their last meeting: E. G. Hower, captain; Thomas McHenry, lieutenant; W. O. Sherman, ensign; E. O. Blair, clerk; T. L. Jamieson, accountant.

The Christian Endeavor convention which was held at the Christian church last week was a very successful affair. Addresses and reports were made by the state officers. Many of the prominent Christian workers of the state were in attendance.

The Las Animas County Teachers association held its quarterly meeting in the High school building yesterday. Papers were presented by J. W. Kane and J. E. Kemp. A very novel and interesting feature was a model recitation in reading by a class of Spanish-American children conducted by J. M. Madrid. These meetings are proving to be very helpful to the teachers.

Mrs. C. H. Nichols entertained at whist Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Mustard of Shanghai, China. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mustard when touring the orient last year.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Babcock when their daughter Mabel was married to Mr. W. B. Morgan of Mount Pleasant, Texas, in the presence of about 75 guests. The house was very tastefully decorated. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the dining room. Many handsome and useful presents consisting of cut glass, silver and china were received. The happy couple have gone to Mount Pleasant where Mr. Morgan has a position with the Cotton Belt road.

Eli Jeffryes, receiving teller of the First National bank, has taken a three months' vacation on account of trouble with his eyes. He will take a course of treatment.

LEADVILLE

Special to the Gazette.

Leadville, Colo., Dec. 2. The trial of Jesse Sherman, charged with the murder of Edward Borrington, commenced here in the district court today. The crime with which Sherman is charged was committed on October 13, Borrington being instantly killed by a charge of shot from a gun in the hands of Sherman. Borrington with several other boys was interfering with the Belgian hares owned by Sherman, when Sherman, coming upon them suddenly, fired a charge of buckshot after the fleeing boys. Sherman is being defended by Attorneys Ewing & Cavender, while the people are represented by Prosecuting Attorney Purple, assisted by Attorney Dalton. The entire day was taken up in an attempt to get a jury. A panel of 31 jurors was exhausted at 5:30 when court adjourned until 9 tomorrow morning, after making an order for a special venire of 24 jurors.

Charles Hart, well known in Leadville, who entered into business a few weeks ago, was arrested today on information from Tumwater, Thurston county, Washington, on a charge of embezzlement. It appears that several years ago Hart was city treasurer at the place mentioned, and ran several hundred dollars short in his accounts. He has made Leadville his home for the past four years and has borne an excellent reputation, having made many friends during that time. Sheriff Mills of Thurston county, Washington, is now on his way to Leadville with extradition papers for Hart. Hart has assigned his business to J. T. D. Loomer.

Never such a bargain: Douglas shoes half price. Nesbitt, 12 E. Huerfano.

NEW MEXICO STATEHOOD AND NATIONAL IRRIGATION

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2. Delegate Rody of New Mexico, today introduced a bill to establish statehood for New Mexico. It authorizes the governor of New Mexico to call an election for delegates to a constitutional convention, which shall formulate a constitution to be submitted to the people of the territory preliminary to admission to statehood.

Representative Shafroth re-introduced the bill submitted by him in the last congress providing for adoption of the metric system of weights and measures.

Representative Newlands, of Nevada, introduced a bill providing for reclamation of arid lands through use of a special fund derived from sale of public lands. His bill authorizes the secretary of interior to let contracts for construction of irrigation works payment to be made from this fund, cost of each storage project is to be fastened upon the land reclaimed and is to be repaid by settlers in 20 annual payments, the land only to be entered under homestead act in tracts of 80 acres.

An important meeting of members of congress representing western states was held in Senator Warren's committee room this evening to discuss proposed irrigation legislation. Five senators and 21 representatives from Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, South Dakota, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Nebraska were present. Representatives Newlands and Shafroth contended for national control of irrigation works which might be constructed through government aid. Representative Mondell and others favored adoption of a measure placing control of diversion and distribution of water so stored in hands of state authorities.

A concensus of opinion was that western members must harmonize their differences and agree upon some general measure. A motion proposed by Senator Dubois and seconded by Senator Kearns, prevailed, authorizing the chairman of the meeting, Senator Warren, to appoint a sub-committee representing the arid and semi-arid states of which he should be a member with authority to formulate a bill to be presented soon to an adjourned meeting for consideration and possible adoption. This committee was appointed and a meeting of it called for Thursday evening, when work upon a general irrigation measure will be commenced. It is believed tonight's meeting will lead to adoption by western members of an irrigation measure upon which all can stand. The attention of Senator Clark of Montana, and Thomas F. Walsh of Colorado, was today called to a telegram from Denver, published here, announcing that they will, in connection with the Rock Island and Pacific build a new trans-continental line to the coast. Both said there is no foundation for the report.

Daley's Injuries Resulted Fatally

James Daley, one of the men injured Sunday night at Palmer Lake while jumping from a train on which they had been stealing a ride, died early yesterday morning at St. Francis' hospital. Death was caused by a fractured skull. J. L. Marcotte, the other man injured, was bruised about the head and shoulders. He will recover.

Daley, Marcotte and Fred Racine were beating their way toward Denver on the Santa Fe train which leaves this city at 6:25 in the evening. They were riding on a blind baggage. At Palmer Lake Daley and Marcotte jumped off the train before it stopped. Both fell and were picked up later while unconscious. They were brought to this city at midnight and Daley died two hours later.

Seven Trips Abroad in Sixteen Months

Dr. R. E. Newland of California, is at the Antlers en route to Europe to negotiate an important mining deal with a large London firm. Dr. Newland has crossed the Atlantic seven times during the last sixteen months, and is en route on the eighth trip within less than a year and a half. She is now negotiating for the sale of some important California mining properties.

Mrs. Newland is probably one of the best known women on the Pacific coast. She owns, operates, manages and controls vast property, and does all the business of it herself. A trip to London or Europe is no more of a hindrance to a transaction for her than a cross-country stage ride would be to the average business man. Her possessions extend all along the Pacific coast from Washington to the southern part of California.

Upon her return from California, Dr. Newland will remain in Colorado Springs for some time.

Supreme Court Denies a Re-Hearing--More Assaults on Women.

Denver Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Denver, Colo., Dec. 2. In a lengthy decision the supreme court this morning denied the attorneys for the corporations a rehearing in that part of the revenue suit relating to the authority of Judge Dixon of Pueblo to issue an injunction restraining the state board of assessors from sending out the assessment rolls to the various counties. It will be remembered that some time ago the supreme court, Judge Campbell not sitting—held that Judge Dixon had no authority to issue a restraining order against the assessors. Since Judge Campbell has returned, the corporation attorneys requested a rehearing of the case. Today's decision denied them that privilege.

It will be remembered that the assessors and attorney general were cited for contempt of court, but the two members of the court that were sitting disagreed. Arguments on Chief Justice Campbell today, but they were deferred until next Saturday morning. The men were cited for having sent out the assessment rolls after Judge Dixon had issued an order restraining them from doing so, and after the supreme court had by implication at least, warned them from sending out the rolls.

A number of attempted assaults occurred in this city last night, which served to keep the police department engaged from sundown to daybreak. An attempt was made to assault Mabel Nelson, a 10-year-old girl living at 41 Winne street, at 8:30, but the attempt was frustrated. At about 9 o'clock an unknown man slipped up behind and dealt Edith Meria two hard blows on the head while she was standing in front of her home at 2242 Clear avenue. The force of the blows drove her through the front window of her home and her assailants fled. A few moments later, Mrs. J. J. Walker, of 1827 Platte street, was seized from behind while she was carrying some kindling to the house, but her screams brought rescue, and the man darted away in the darkness leaving her uninjured. In just a few moments, another assault was reported from 51 Winne Street. This time the man entered the home of 14-year old Hattie Hughes and attempted to commit an assault after she had retired. Her small brother came to the rescue and his screams awakened the neighbors and the man fled. All four of the attempts were made within a few blocks of each other, and by 10:30 nearly every person in that part of the city was looking for the man, but he was not apprehended. One arrest has been made. The suspect gave his name as George Chiolero, but he has not been identified as being connected with the crime.

Some time ago James E. Merwin who is now assistant attorney general of the state was district attorney of Boulder county. The board of county commissioners was politically opposed to him and after he had served one year, fixed his compensation at $1 per year. He brought suit for $1,000, but the lower court found that the state law places in the hands of the county commissioners the power to fix the salary of such an officer and decided against him. He carried the matter to the supreme court and that body decided today that the decision of the lower court was correct, therefore his only compensation for the year's work will be $1.

Young Corbett, who won the victory over Terry McGovern at Hartford, Conn. last Thursday, has telegraphed a friend in Denver as follows: "Arrange a Christmas dinner for the newsboys of Denver at my expense. Nothing is too good for the kids. Will leave here December 16th and be present at dinner."

As this is the second dinner that is being prepared for the boys, they will no doubt spend a very pleasant Christmas.

The contestants who have been for the past four days trying to break the will of Watson W. Moore, gained a complete victory this morning. The jury returned a verdict setting aside the will and ordering that the property be divided among the legal heirs.

The receipts of the secretary of state's office for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1901, were $151,338.30 as against $93,005.17 last year. An increase of $58,333.13.

Among the articles of incorporation filed today were papers for the North Star Gold Mining company of Cheyenne to operate in El Paso and Teller counties. The company has a capitalization of $150,000. Its directors are C. D. Taylor, Z. J. Gervais and H. J. Meagher.

Burglars last night entered the residence of Frank Tower, 1220 South Sixteenth street and secured two fine gold medals given Mr. Tower when he was a major two years ago. They also secured an emerald ring and a diamond, besides $24 in cash.

WRITE RIGHT

"Scatter decent, helpful things."

Good, philosophical Rus Wilson once said to a new reporter, "Young man, write as you feel, but try to feel right. Be good humored toward everyone and everything. Believe that other folks are just as good as you are, for they are. Give 'em your best and bear in mind that God has sent them, in His wisdom, all the trouble they need, and it is for you to scatter gladness and decent, helpful things as you go. Don't be particular about how the stuff will look in print, but let 'er go. Some one will understand. That is better than to write so dost bing high, or so tarnashun deep, deep that no one understands. Let 'er go."

"So on the above plan," says M. W. Porter of Topeka, Kan., "I will write what I know of Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food from personal experience. After a long period of indigestion and other disorders, with some misgivings, I took up the use of Grape-Nuts. Despite the bad weather I kept gaining in strength and mentally, a thing I had never done at that season of the year.

"I found the food an excellent stimulant for the brain and I could do more and better work than I had ever done. I soon came to discover how closely the brain and digestive organs were in sympathy with each other. Whatever retarded the work of one had a corresponding effect on the other, and the food that tended to put one in proper shape acted accordingly on the other. I know that my great improvement [illegible] by dispensing with unwholesome food and using Grape-Nuts liberally."

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Short Line Cuts Passenger and Freight Rates Below Its Competitor.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Cripple Creek, Dec. 2. The Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek District Short Line has met the cut of the Denver Southwestern combine and has gone that corporation one better. A. P. Niles, general agent for the Short Line in the district, has received instructions that passenger rates over this line effective tomorrow, December 3, will be as follows: To Colorado Springs, one way, 50 cents, round trip, good only returning same day, 80 cents. To Denver, $2, to Pueblo, $. These rates are the same as those made by the combine and Midland Terminal and F. & C. C. roads, except that the round trip rate of 80 cents to Colorado Springs and return, cuts 20 cents off the D. & S. W. cut rate. The new tariff cards of the Short Line also affects the charges on incoming freight. The D. & S. W. has during the past few months depended largely for its earnings upon the hauling of freight. The Short Line has made a cut that will greatly cut down these earnings. Effective tomorrow, the Short Line will haul hay, flour, grain, feed, lime, cement, brick and plaster into the district from Colorado Springs for five cents per 100 pounds. The charges on this class of freight was formerly 15 cents to 32 cents per 100 pounds. The passenger travel over the combine line was not as heavy today as it was yesterday. The superb scenery on the Short line and the excellent train service of this road, combined with the cut rate, will without doubt cause the combine train to be practically deserted beginning tomorrow. Local merchants who have bought large stocks of Christmas goods and winter clothing, are already complaining of the D. & S. W. action in cutting the rates. With the low rates it is but natural for the people of the district to go to the larger cities of the state to do their Christmas shopping.

Dr. D. M. Bodwell, the well-known physician of this city, was married this evening to Miss Margaret Dryden, one of Canon City's popular young ladies. The ceremony was performed at Canon City. Dr. and Mrs. Bodwell will make their home at 330 Florissant street in Cripple Creek.

She alleges that the defendants refused her admittance to the property and that they will not let her know of the condition of the lease. She asks that the Moon-Anchor company and the Eagle Ore Sampling company be ordered to deposit with the court all moneys coming from the ore shipped and held for an accounting.

In the case of C. R. Smith and J. R. Rounner, versus Charles W. Clark and J. E. Burns and Florence E. Burns to Mrs. T. H. Holmes, lots 19 and 20, block 4, Gold Flats addition to Cripple Creek, $700. Ella Sprague to Wm. Sprague and Frederick Sprague, 6-24 interest in the Daisy lode, $1. M. J. Duzan to Robert Shaw, lot 22, block 29, Victor, $2,000. Robert Shaw to Mary Shaw, ½ interest in lot 22, block 29, Victor, $1,000.

The freight business has become so enormously large in Pueblo that it has been absolutely necessary to relieve the superintendent of the division here of the details of the work of the yards. Y., for $100,000, the same to stand for a period of six months. Out of the 1,250,000 shares of Kentucky Belle stock, 800,000 are held by Pueblo parties, the principal owners being J. P. Collier, T. H. DeVine, John F. Bishop, E. Guyol, J. F. McMahon, John Walhole, Wm. and Charles Cherrington. Mr. Bishop closed the deal in Colorado Springs late last Saturday afternoon. There are several small stockholders of Kentucky Belle in Pueblo but the above are the principal ones.

Y. ranch, consisting of about 2,000 acres lying east of this city and near Barton on the line of the Santa Fe. One of the largest realty transfers in South Union avenue property that has been made in some time, was closed up today. Mrs. McKay lives in Nova Scotia, and her property interests here are looked after by Middlecamp Bros. F. and Ben Kane sold to Burnett & Franklin, the vacant lot on the east side of North Union avenue, near the bridge adjoining the Star lodging house. NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Victor, Dec. 2. At the Vindicator No. 2 on Bull hill early this morning, an accident took place that resulted in Engineer Otto Holmes losing three fingers on his right hand, Fireman A. S. DeVen being seriously scalded by escaping steam, the almost complete destruction of the engine, the unroofing of the engine house and other damages to the surface workings of the mine that will require some time to repair. The accident happened while the cage was being lowered. It is stated that the engineer undertook to arrest the momentum of the cage, but that a defect in the machinery allowed the cage to travel with great speed down the shaft. The increased speed caused the drum of the hoist to separate into pieces, parts of it flying in all directions. A piece of the flying wheel cut the engineer on the hand, dislocating it, and so badly lacerating three fingers that amputation was necessary. Other pieces of the wheel tore through the roof of the engine house. The steam pipe leading from the boiler burst and A. F. DeVen was enveloped in a dense cloud of hot steam, and was very badly scalded. The cage dropped with a crash into the sump at the 13th level. It was a double-decked cage, and the fall of approximately 1,200 feet, badly demolished it. Dr. Shepherd was summoned, and Engineer Holmes was removed to the hospital and Fireman DeVen to his home, 139 Victor avenue, Goldfield. DeVen is badly burned about the face, neck shoulders and arms, and is suffering much pain. The outcome of his injuries cannot be determined for several days. The work of repairing the damage to the Vindicator plant was commenced this morning.

A record for hoisting ore was broken at the Ajax mine on Battle mountain last night. During the 8-hour shift, the double decked cage made 28 trips from the lower workings to the surface and on each trip brought up two loaded cars. Approximately 2 tons of rock were hoisted. This is said to be the record in the camp for hoisting under similar conditions. The engineer on the shift was Ed. Carroll and the cagers Lee Weygandt and William Monroe.

Harry Curtis, a miner employed at the Independence mine, was struck in the eye by a piece of steel this afternoon. The eye was badly injured, but Dr. Chamberlain, who is attending Curtis, thinks that he can save the eyesight.

Charles M. McLaughlin, a miner 50 years of age, died of apoplexy this morning at his home on Eighth street. Deceased has been in the camp nine years. He leaves a wife and six daughters, three of whom are married. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The difficulty existing between the Trades assembly and the Pike's Peak Power company has been settled. The brick masons employed by the Pike's Peak Power company returned to work this morning, and the electrical workers also resumed work.

[illegible] the mercantile interests of the H. G. Moore Mercantile company and John Ritter have been consolidated under the firm name of the H. G. Moore Mercantile company. Both [illegible] will be maintained.

Robert Eyster while at work at the Ajax property this morning, was badly cut on the left hand by flying rock. Dr. Deemer attended his injuries and he will be able to resume work in about a week.

Ed Newland and wife returned this morning from a few days visit with friends in Canon City. Dr. M. A. Latimer has returned from a visit to Denver where he was called by the illness of his grandchild.

Harvey Kenyon of Clinton, Mo., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Delhi.

S. G. Cunningham returned this morning from a visit to his parents at Canon City.

FLORENCE

Florence, Dec. 2. Milo Hingman, a five-year-old boy, fell three weeks ago and blood flowed from his mouth profusely and it was supposed at that time that his teeth cut his cheek. This morning he was examined by a physician who extracted a piece of apple wood measuring more than two inches long, and as large around as a lead pencil, which had been concealed in the jaw during that time.

Thomas W. Thipps, the laborer who was blown a distance of 25 feet amidst a mass of cement while by a premature explosion of a charge of blasting powder at the Colorado-Portland Cement works Saturday morning, died from the result of his injuries last night. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, and it is likely that the veterans of the Spanish war will take part in the services as deceased did duty for his country in the Spanish-American war with Roosevelt's Rough Riders, and enlisted in Santa Fe. He served through the war and was not injured.

The Christian Scientists will build a new stone church on East Second street. The money is all raised and the work will soon be commenced. The edifice will be built of white lava.

The Florence mills will soon receive ore from the dumps of the Elkton property. Job Lyon and associates, a short time ago purchased the immense dump and have commenced sorting the ore. Shipments will be commenced immediately.

The roasters at the Union mill were fired up this morning and the work of heating will occupy about 48 hours. This is the preparatory step for putting the mill to running. The trial tests of the new machinery proved very successful. It has required several months labor to overhaul and remodel this plant, but it is now considered to be one of the best equipped mills in the entire state.

The ore and dust that was left in the El Paso mill before it was destroyed by fire, is being treated at the Rocky Mountain smelter. There are several tons of the stuff. The smelter is now in such shape that it can be put in operation in 24 hours if necessary. About a dozen railroad dump cars belonging to the smelter were sent out yesterday to the mining camps to be loaded with ore.

FRIGHTENED.

The Agony Endured by Nervous Women.

"My nerves are all unstrung" is the expressive way in which a woman is apt to describe a condition of extreme nervousness. The figurative expression "unstring" may be unscientific, but it pathetically suggests the grand harp of the nervous system, strung and keyed for harmonies by its Maker, now become so unstrung that it gives out nothing but jarring discords. Nervous people rarely receive the sympathy which is their due. The dropping of a hook which causes the nervous woman to start, or the slamming of a door which causes her to scream, are sounds which do not jar the able nerves of a healthy person. To the nervous woman such sudden sounds are like a blow in the face and they cause intense suffering. The extent of this suffering may be gathered from Mrs. Nelson's experience told in the letter given below. She says: "I was so nervous that the least thing would startle me almost into convulsions." Such a condition of nervousness generally indicates womanly diseases. It is useless to attempt to cure nervousness by the use of narcotics.

NARCOTICS ARE DEADLY

for the nervous woman whose need is not to make the nerves sleep but to make them strong, not to numb them but to nourish them. The best medicine for nervous women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures nervousness because it cures the causes which are behind nervousness. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which undermine the health and strength, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Dr. Pierce's medicines are the best I have ever used," writes Mrs. C. Nelson, of Chemawa, Marion Co., Oregon. "My health was badly run down when I consulted him by letter. My limbs were cold and my head hurt me continually. I was so nervous that the least thing would startle me almost into convulsions. I had palpitation of the heart so bad that I could scarcely walk some times. I felt utterly discouraged, but two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and one of Golden Medical Discovery made a new woman out of me. We are never without Dr. Pierce's Pellets in the house."

Nothing is claimed for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription but is claimed for it by the women who have been cured, or by its use. Behind every claim is a cure, yes, a thousand cures. In fact Mrs. Anderson in the letter which follows expresses the general sentiment of her sex when she writes: "I think Dr. Pierce's medicine is the best in the world for sick and nervous women. I would like to express my gratitude to you for the benefits I have received from your wonderful medicine, 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va. "It is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring good health without subjecting their weak nerves to the shock of an examination.

"I was all run down in health from November until March—could not work, but a short while without resting. Was so nervous at times that I could not write, had a very poor appetite, and what I ate did not seem to do me much good. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case, and am thankful that I did, for in due time I received a favorable reply as to what kind of medicine to take. I sent and got it and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicine the best in the world for sick and nervous women. May God bless you in your good work."

WHAT WOMEN DREAD.

There is a sentence in Mrs. Anderson's letter which will strike a sympathetic chord in the breast of every woman. She writes of "Favorite Prescription."

"It is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring good health without subjecting their weak nerves to the shock of an examination."

Women dread the indelicate questionings, the offensive examinations and the obnoxious local treatment considered necessary by many local physicians. All these may generally be avoided by consultation by letter with Dr. Pierce, to which there is absolutely no charge. Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, FREE. All correspondence is strictly private and the written confidences of women are treated with the same privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in verbal consultation with women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Because Dr. Pierce's offer is FREE it is not to be classed with those offers of "free medical advice" made by men or women who have neither the legal nor the professional right to practice medicine. If they dared to put on their signs with the title Doctor they, the laws would instantly deal with them. They don't dare to do this and yet, though without medical training, medical knowledge or medical experience, they cunningly offer "free medical advice." The law can't touch that claim because anyone can give free advice on any subject, but a woman knows that the advice of her business is perfectly worthless as to the cutting and fitting of her gown.

In consulting with Dr. Pierce, women not only consult with a real doctor, but one who is a specialist in the treatment and cure of diseases peculiar to women, and who, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has had a little more than thirty years' training and cured hundreds of thousands of women.

WOMEN NEED IT.

Every woman needs a copy of Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 large pages which is sent free on request of those who send stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps if the cloth-bound volume is desired, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WESTERN CONGRESSMEN WILL HOLD A MEETING

Special to the Gazette.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Great interest is manifested in a meeting of western congressmen called for tomorrow night in Senator Warren's committee room to discuss irrigation and other western questions upon which legislation is expected during the coming session. What recommendations will be made in the president's message will not be known at the time of the meeting and it is therefore believed details to plans will be deferred until a subsequent meeting.

SPECIAL MEETING OF DENVER CITY COUNCIL

By Associated Press.

Denver, Dec. 1. Mayor Wright has called a meeting of the city council tomorrow to decide whether the city hall, partially destroyed by fire last night, shall be rebuilt or they will wait for a decision as to the legality of the Rush bill which provides for a division of Arapahoe county if the law is upheld when Denver will fall heir to the present county building. The city officials will be temporarily housed in the chamber of commerce building.

WILLIAM A. SELKIRK

By Associated Press.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 1.—William Alexander Selkirk, a California pioneer of 1850 and for nearly half a century a prominent figure in the newspaper and political world of the Pacific coast, died in this city today after a lingering illness, aged 72 years. He had been an invalid for many months.

Mr. Selkirk was born in St. Louis May 5, 1829. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he was one of the first to volunteer from St. Louis, serving actively through to the close of hostilities. He was one of the early political leaders of California and the owner and founder of one of the first newspapers ever established on the Pacific coast and rapidly rose to a foremost place as an editorial writer. He leaves a widow and two daughters, who are residents of this city.

FELL UNDER A CAR AND HAD FOOT CRUSHED

James Daley, of Denver, fell under a car while jumping from a Santa Fe freight train at Palmer Lake last night. His foot was so badly crushed by the wheels that passed over it that it had to be amputated.

Daley and several companions were bound from Cripple Creek to Denver. At Palmer Lake the men jumped from the train, while it was in motion and Daley slipped and fell under the train. Before he could get out of the way of the wheels his foot was crushed. He was brought to this city and taken to St. Francis' hospital.

A Genuine Xmas Sale

OF

Pianos and Music Boxes

The highest type of pleasure comes from giving to, as well as in receiving from, our friends such tokens as will prove lasting and in the greatest degree serviceable and beneficial. Those trivial and nonsensical things, however expensive or inexpensive they may be, given to a friend at such a time as Xmas, are highly suggestive of our estimate of that friend's appreciation. What thing nicer or more appropriate than a Music Box can you give any friend? It will prove a tireless entertainer for all time to come. You can't wear it out. And the Piano, it's good on any occasion, it's good for all occasions. No home is completely furnished without a Piano; no education is complete which does not embrace music. It has been truly said that music is the sunshine of the heart and the home. It delights while it instructs the children, entertains men and women, cheers the elderly and the invalid. Every home is brighter, happier and more refined for its presence. Friends love to visit such a home, and it's satisfying when our home is enjoyed by those whom we entertain.

The Knight-Campbell Music Co. will inaugurate a Special Xmas Sale of Pianos and Music Boxes, beginning this Monday morning, and continuing for Ten Days only. Not a special "alteration" or "removal" sale, not a "going-out-of-business" sale, but a "Xmas" sale pure and simple. A sale for no other motive and for no other purpose than to place a line of the finest Xmas presents in the world within the reach of every El Paso county home which is without a Piano or Music Box. Our big Colorado Springs store is crowded, almost overcrowded with the very finest of Pianos Steinway, A. B. Chase, Everett, Fischer, Kimball, Smith & Barnes, Ludwig, etc., and prices, well, here are some of them: $112, $142, $166, $178, $188, $228, $252, $287, $306. Prices are simply way below anything that ever happened in Colorado Springs.

PADEREWSKI AND THE STEINWAY

Are sovereign over all. What the Steinway is to Paderewski it can be to you the most musicianly piano made. Sounds of such beauty as come from a Steinway piano coax from you your best efforts always. That's why your delight in playing a Steinway knows no bounds and why your improvement is so much more rapid than when playing on any other piano. That invisible something, it's indescribable, but it's in the Steinway and you feel it is there. Steinways are in this Xmas sale at greatly reduced prices, and easy terms of payment if desired, same as on any piano.

RETURNED FROM DENVER WITH A PRISONER

Detective Atkinson arrived in this city last night from Denver, having in custody John Harris, accused of swindling. Harris was arrested in Denver on a warrant sworn out in Colorado Springs by Dr. Arnold. The local police located the alleged fugitive and he is now in the county jail awaiting a hearing before Justice McClelland.

The police say that Harris secured money from Dr. Arnold by representing that he was penniless and needed the cash to pay a bill.

An Enjoyable Evening.

You may hear some of the very newest and most popular selections in music and these rendered in the most classical manner by Mr. A. M. Baldwin, now with the Knight-Campbell Music Co. in their Xmas sale of pianos. Mr. Baldwin lends music as many of us read print, and his execution is almost beyond criticism.

STRIKE AT OURAY WAS SOON SETTLED

By Associated Press.

Denver, Nov. 1. A Republican special from Ouray says that the day shift of the Camp Bird mine struck when they came off duty last night, demanding that they be allowed to go and come from work on the company's time. Manager Benson said the demand was extraordinary and declined to submit to it. He said seven and a half hours per day would be added thereby to each man's time. The men withdrew their demand and returned to work at noon today.

GROWING OLD GRACEFULLY.

Nothing is so interesting, nothing so restful and refreshing, as to see a man and woman who have lived together for a quarter of a century, starting down the shady slope of life, hand in hand, and happy or they were when she, with flushed face, heard love's old, sweet song. Marriage is often a failure, because people marry without even giving the future a thought—marry and go to work and work without recreation till they are ready to die. I once heard a lady telling her daughter what to do when she was married. "Take a trip," she said; "get married in winter time when the world is cheerless and you are short on sunshine; take a trip to the southern states and turn winter into summer again; go to Little Rock, Hot Springs, or San Antonio, and get acquainted with your husband; watch him at the hotel, and see what he likes to eat, and how and when he likes it. It won't hurt you to study his comfort a little; it would make him love you more. But you must know something of him before you are married. Never marry a man who will laugh at the jokes on mothers-in-law at the minstrel show, or who will not buy his wedding tour tickets over the Missouri Pacific Railway."

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

CONGRESS is once more in session and the attention of all interested in public affairs will be turned from local and state matters to national affairs.

There is no other representative body in the world that does its work under such a glare of publicity and public interest as does the congress of the United States. No other country in the world has such a body of newspaper readers as this one, and in no other country is there such a number of newspapers determined to keep their readers fully informed upon all public questions.

That such a condition is occasionally not for the best public good cannot be denied, but on the whole the effects are good and the general condition is very much more to the public interest than if congressional proceedings were kept secret or the public took no interest in them.

No congressman can fail to be known for what he is and his sincerity, his ability, his follies, and his faults are all made known to his constituents and to the great body of Americans.

On the other hand the educational value to the people of the publication of congressional debates, and the newspaper discussion of measures pending in congress is immeasurable. It is not true that every American is a congressional substitute ready and able to take a place in the national legislature whenever the opportunity comes, but it is true that there is in this country a wonderfully large number of people who are well informed upon national affairs, who have opinions upon them that are the result of intelligent reading and thought, and who are competent to vote intelligently and in so doing to pass judgment upon the course of their representatives in congress.

The space in the newspapers devoted to congressional proceedings is not wasted. It tends to make the congressmen better, which is one great thing gained, and it tends directly to promote that interest in and knowledge of public affairs that is one of the great safeguards of our republic.

THE LIVE STOCK INTERESTS.

Special to the Gazette.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Chicago is in fact the metropolis of Inland America. With the great prosperity of the country, with the Pacific trade reaching unprecedented proportions, with a president at Washington whose heart is with the west, with the splendid plans being embodied into laws by the present congress for the reclamation of millions of acres of arid lands, it is small wonder that the enterprising inhabitants of this marvelous city see a future which will make it the greatest inland commercial city on the face of the earth if not really the greatest without regard to location.

The International Livestock exhibition opened here today with the finest display of live stock ever witnessed by any people any place. England and Canada are well represented in the exhibits, but nothing which they have shown surpasses the carefully bred stock of the Americans. One man remarked today as he passed the stalls filled with the perfect specimens of animal life: "Isn't it too bad that as much pains is not taken with the breeding of people as with the breeding of cattle?"

Colorado is well represented in the exhibition and better represented in the strong delegation of those interested in the cattle industry. Everywhere is heard the assertion that if the arid plains and valleys of Colorado were reclaimed by irrigation that it would be the richest agricultural and grazing state in the union.

Strangers are amazed when they are told that already our agricultural and live stock products greatly exceed in value, per annum, the output of the mines and that these products are superior in quality to those of any other section of the country. The men here are doing splendid service for the state in distributing information and it all falls upon friendly and interested ears.

No state in the union is attracting so much attention to its vast and varied resources as Colorado is. If the president urges national aid for storage reservoirs and the construction of national irrigation canals to reclaim the government lands in the west, all Colorado values will appreciate fully fifty per cent. Such works would mean a million and a half of population in the next decade and a stimulus to all development that would make [illegible] the richest community in the world at [illegible] the next twenty years. Every place one goes [illegible] is proud to acknowledge he is from Colorado [illegible] he is indifferently inclined the universal song of praise will bring the color of pride to his cheeks.

The National Livestock convention which meets here tomorrow and the International exhibition will do [illegible] amount to stimulate the cattle industry [illegible] west and Colorado will receive its due share of benefit.

Springer, De Ricqles, Ballentine and others are carefully looking after every Colorado interest [illegible] states are more made by men than by conditions. One of the subjects to be announced at an early date in the Gazette will be the "Live Stock Industry of Colorado" and our own people will be amazed at its value and extent.

IN LINE WITH HIS RECORD.

NO ONE who has any personal knowledge of President Roosevelt's character or familiarity with his past record could have any doubt as to what his policy would be in regard to appointments by merit or the qualifications necessary for federal officeholders. President Roosevelt's standing as a civil service reformer is thoroughly established and he is not the sort of a man to go back on it.

It was also equally certain that the president would not approve of that "pernicious activity" of federal officeholders which consists in using official position as a vantage ground upon which to establish a dictatorship over party affairs or in employing official power to control and direct the party policy. Such a practice is almost as much a contravention of the principles of good civil service as is the appointment of incompetent or corrupt officials as a reward for party services.

In the letter recently sent by Attorney General Knox to the United States marshal and district attorney at Kansas City, the views of the present administration are set forth with unmistakable force and precision.

To All Officers and Employes of the Department of Justice:

Your attention is directed to a circular of this department issued August 20, 1900, in which section 2 of the civil service act of January 16, 1883, forbidding any executive officer or employe, among others, to solicit or receive political contributions from any officers or employes of the United States, was quoted, and all persons serving under this department were required to observe strictly the prohibitions of this law and were recommended to refrain from service on political committees charged with the collection and disbursement of campaign funds.

I now repeat the injunctions of that circular and add the following further directions on the subject:

Rule No. 2 of the civil service rules provides that no person in the executive civil service shall use his official authority or official influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or controlling the result thereof. The spirit of the civil service laws and rules renders it highly undesirable for federal officers and employes to take an active part in political conventions or in the direction of other parts of political machinery. Persons in the government service under this department should not act as chairmen of political organizations nor make themselves unduly prominent in local political matters. It is expected and required that all officers and employes of this department shall act in entire conformity with the views herein set forth.

The principles herein set forth will undoubtedly receive the approval of the great majority of American citizens, and they will result not only in the improvement of the public service but also in the bettering of the prospects and standing of the party that is responsible for their setting forth and enforcement.

"THE OPEN PARLIAMENT."

A NOTABLY successful feature of the Gazette has been the Open Parliament in which the public has been invited to discuss matters of current and public interest without regard to whether the opinions therein expressed agree or not with the sentiments and policy of the management of this paper.

That such discussion is a real benefit to the public cannot be denied, and the truth of it has been demonstrated on more than one occasion.

In the coming months a special effort will be made to make the Open Parliament more than ever the vehicle for public sentiment upon topics of general interest in the state. With this end in view contributions have been solicited from various persons prominent in political and social life and these will appear from time to time in forthcoming numbers of this paper. At the same time the general invitation to all is repeated.

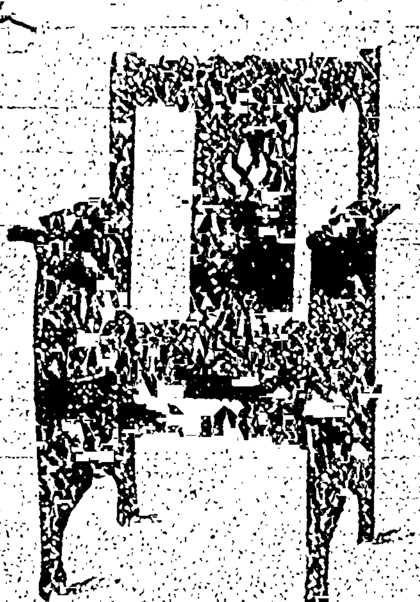

The New York Evening Post gives some sensible advice to horse owners which is as applicable to this latitude and altitude as it is to Manhattan:

It was a curious illustration of the unconscious cruelties of fashion that while a number of well-known gentlewomen were yesterday expressing their enthusiasm for the horse by their presence in Madison Square Garden, the agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals were removing from the mouths of the horses which had drawn these ladies to the horse show certain instruments of torture called "burrs." The burr is a pad, studded at the best with bristles, at the worst with metallic points, which is inserted between the cheek-piece and the tender part of the horse's mouth. The constant pressure of the burr makes the horse fretful, and this fretfulness gives the necessary style which a carriage horse should show. Now, of course, the dozen people of importance from whose horses these ingeniously cruel instruments had been taken were probably ignorant that such a thing existed. Just as many American residents in Paris are ignorant of the horrors of the servants' quarters in the "sixieme etage." But the incident shows that we do well to follow our vanities to their remoter effects. If we are too indolent for this not very agreeable task, it is fortunate that there are societies like the "S. P. C. A." to bring us to book. [illegible] and that a few will see to it that the mouths of their horses be not made instruments of torture.

The current number of Science contains a short article by [illegible] of Colorado college [illegible] Southerly Deviation of Falling Bodies." Contrary to the general belief a falling body does not drop straight down toward the center of the [illegible] to the east and south of the point [illegible] this deviation [illegible] is a problem for the scientists. In this article Professor Cajori considers the possibility of deviation due to magnetic currents and concludes that such effects would be much too small to cause a deviation measurable in an experiment. He also suggests that the problem needs reinvestigation experimentally and perhaps also theoretically.

Former Senator Allen of Nebraska is trying to rally the remnants of the Populist party of that state along the original lines and for the advancement of the political principles it once possessed in the [illegible] Evidently Mr. Allen has yet to learn that the hope of springe chickens does not lie in last year's bird-nests.

St. Mary's to Have A Parochial School

The profits made at the recent Catholic fair will go toward the building and of a parochial school which is to be maintained by St. Mary's church. The amount netted from the fair is $6,000, and this together with the subscriptions will make the building fund now on hand $10,000. The proposed school will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. Just when work will be begun will not be determined until Bishop Matz of this diocese returns from his trip to Rome. Bishop Matz is now en route from Rome, where he paid his ad limina visit to Pope Leo, but it will be some time before he returns to his duties here as he will probably make several visits with clergymen of the different bishoprics.

The parochial school has long been contemplated by the parish of St. Mary's, but nothing could be done until most of the funds had been raised, as the church did not want to start out burdened with a heavy indebtedness. Now that about half of the money is on hand, it is probable that the plans for the school will be made soon after the arrival of the bishop.

The building will be located on the site of Loretto academy. This property belongs to the Sisters of Loretto, but the parish will probably purchase it. The present academy building will be used as the executive building, and two large wings will be added, one for boys and one for girls. The school will be conducted similarly to the public schools, so far as the curriculum of study is concerned. Aside from this, the pupils are given religious instruction. The site of the school is such that the school buildings can be enlarged at any time. The ground surrounding the present academy is ample, and will form a good sized play ground for the children.

Harris Goes to Jail in Default of Bail

John Harris, who was reported in yesterday's Gazette to be charged with having obtained $125 by false pretenses from Dr. C. H. Arnold, was arraigned yesterday before Justice McClelland and pleaded not guilty. He was committed to the county jail in default of $50 bail pending a hearing today.

Harris and Dr. Arnold have been friends for 20 years. Dr. Arnold says that Harris called to see him recently and represented that he was penniless and that he needed money to pay the expenses of his sister, who was seriously ill and being cared for at St. Joseph's hospital, Denver. According to the complaint sworn out by Dr. Arnold, Harris said that he was employed by a mason-making company and could easily pay back any funds that the physician might lend him. Dr. Arnold pitied him in his supposed plight and gave him $125.

Afterwards, Dr. Arnold says, he learned that Harris' story was false and that his sister was not ill. The physician swore out a warrant before Justice McClelland for the alleged swindler's arrest. The police located Harris in Denver and the police of that city arrested him. He was brought to this city Sunday night by Detective Atkinson.

There seems to be some doubt as to the real name of the prisoner. The police state unreservedly that it is Harris, but Justice McClelland says that the case is against John Hains.

Haydn's "Creation" To Be Given Tonight

The work this evening at St. Stephen's church, under the direction of Mr. F. M. English, will begin one of the most attractive musical treats ever given the people of Colorado Springs. The choir of 30 voices, assisted by Miss Katherine Orrisby, soprano, and Mr. Frank Ormsby, tenor, will render Haydn's "Creation." There will be no charge for admission and all seats will be free. There will be a collection for the benefit of the church organ fund.

Mr. English has spared no effort to make the entertainment for this evening one of the most attractive that the people have been permitted to hear for a long time. Miss Cordell, whose voice and manner have placed her among the very best singers of the local music-loving public, will add the church even more than her special attraction. The people will have an additional pleasure however in the presence and the excellent work of Mr. Frank Ormsby. Mr. Frank Ormsby is a young man of essential merit if criticisms from the highest musical authorities are to be depended upon and there are people in the city who have heard him who assert that he is not in any degree over-rated. The Chicago Musical Times said of him recently: "Salve di Mora" gave Mr. Ormsby ample opportunity to exhibit the beauties of his lovely, lyric tenor voice; with the exception of Jean de Reszke we question if ever having been given a more artistic interpretation in the city. Mr. Ormsby has a voice clear as a bell, of sympathetic quality and exceptional compass. His high C's are sung with perfect ease."

The following is the program for this evening:

PART I.

Representation of Chaos.
Bass solo, "In the Beginning."
Chorus, "And the Spirit of God."
Tenor solo, "And God Saw the Light."
Tenor solo and chorus, "Now Vanish Before the Holy Beams"
Bass solo, "And God Made the Firmament."
Soprano solo and chorus, "The Marvelous Work."
Bass solos, (a) "And God Said Let the Waters," (b) "Rolling in the Foaming Billows."
Soprano solos, (a) "And God Said Let the Earth," (b) "With Verdure clad."
Tenor solo, "And the Heavenly Host,"
Chorus, "Awake the Harp."

PART II.

Tenor solo, (a) "And God Said, Let there be Light," (b) "In Splendor Bright."
Chorus, "The Heavens are Telling."
Trio, "Most Beautiful Appear."
Bass solos, (a) "And God Said Let the Earth Bring Forth," (b) "Straight Opening Her Fertile Womb," (c) "Now Heaven in Fullest Glory Shone."
Tenor solos, (a) "And God Created Man," (b) "In Native Worth."
Duet and chorus, "By Thee with Bliss,"
Bass solo, "And God Saw Everything that He had Made."
Chorus, "Achieved is the Glorious Work."

Love and Sorrow Mrs. Booth Tucker's Theme

"Love and Sorrow," a lecture by Consul Mrs. Emma Booth-Tucker, styled as the most masterful composition of modern times, will be given in Temple theater in this city on December 16. Commander F. DeL. Booth-Tucker and his wife, Consul Mrs. Emma Booth-Tucker, who are the leaders of the Salvation Army in the United States, will visit Colorado Springs on that day. Accompanied by a large staff of the army's best musicians, including a brass band, and a score of other high officers in the army from New York, the noted workers and leaders will arrive here to hold a service as above. After their visit to Boston, where Consul Booth-Tucker gave the same lecture, the Boston Herald found occasion to comment as follows:

"It was in song and story, in anecdote and incident, in photographs and sketches, Consul Emma Booth-Tucker rendered home the compelling truth of the misery and vice of the life of the other sex. It was a form of entertainment the form is not, indeed, a misdemeanor unique, forceful and realistic."

These extraordinary gifted people are at present touring the central and Rocky Mountain division of their field, holding services in all the more important cities along the route.

They have been most enthusiastically received in the east and thorough arrangements have been made for their visit to Colorado. Prominent people in all the places where it is known they are to stop have offered themselves and their services for the benefit of the noted guests.

They arrive here from Denver and go from here to El Paso, Texas.

EXCITING CHASE AFTER FUGITIVE

Prisoner Escaped From Detective and Was Pursued by a Crowd---He Was Not Captured.

The escape of a prisoner from Detective Atkinson at the police station last evening was followed by an exciting chase through the streets after the fugitive, who managed to elude a large number of pursuers. At the start of the chase the detective fired a shot to frighten the escaping prisoner into stopping, but the shot only made him run the faster.

The name of the man who escaped is not known by the police. He was quarreling all day with Sam Shellenberger, the newly elected constable, who runs an employment agency at Tejon and Huerfano streets. Shellenberger says the man owed him a fee and refused to pay it. He called Shellenberger names and about 5 o'clock in the evening Detective Atkinson happened along and arrested him.

The prisoner made no resistance at first. He went peacefully to the city hall and up the rear steps leading to police headquarters. Atkinson had hold of his arm. At the top of the stairway the prisoner wrenched himself free from the officer and gave a big leap down the front steps. He landed half way down the stairs and slid to the foot.

The man then ran out to Nevada avenue and Atkinson, who had started to follow him, drew his revolver and fired a shot into the ground in the hope of frightening him into surrendering. He did not stop, however, but ran at a 10-second pace up Nevada avenue.

L. O. Pell was driving up the street at the time and saw the escape. He whipped up his horse and started in pursuit. The man turned west on Pike's Peak avenue and the driver followed, calling to the people on the street to stop the fugitive. No one tried to stop him, however, but a big crowd was at his heels as he rounded the corner and turned north on Tejon street.

The fugitive ran into the alley back of Robinson's drug store and by the time the crowd, which was increasing rapidly, reached that place he had disappeared. It was learned afterwards that he went through another alley north to Kiowa street and was heading towards the Santa Fe railroad when last seen. He is believed to have left town. The police made every effort to find him.

The escaped prisoner is described as being a tall, well built man, dressed in a light colored suit and wearing glasses.

Date Set for First Musical Club Concert

The first of the course of concerts given under the auspices of the Colorado Springs Musical club has been set for December 13, one week from next Thursday. It will be at Perkins Fine Arts hall.

The attraction for this occasion is Mrs. Katherine Fiske, who is remembered by all the music lovers of Colorado Springs from her visit here three years ago, as one of the most charming artists whom the people of this city have ever heard.

This concert will be the first of the series to be given during the winter and spring by the Musical club, these occasions being among the leading social as well as musical features of the year. All persons who have not yet responded to the notice sent out by the club are asked to do so at once. The course tickets, covering the three, and possibly four, concerts of the year, are to be had at the remarkably low figure of $5.00 each. They can be had from Mrs. Gilpin, 122 East Uintah.

Embezzlement Cases Are Again Postponed

The date for the trials of Moses T. Hale, former city treasurer, and Charles E. Smith, former city clerk, accused of embezzlement of public funds, has again been postponed. The cases were set for trial in the district court for December 10, but yesterday Judge Cunningham ordered a continuance until the January term.

The motion for the continuance was made by Deputy District Attorney Black. The attorneys for the defense made no objection, as they have been seeking a continuance. It is said that the delay in bringing the cases to trial is due to the fact that Gustav Krause, the expert who is examining the books of the defendants, has not yet completed his work.

This is the third time the cases have been postponed. At the opening of the January term of court another date for the trials will be set.

Motions occupied the attention of the civil division of the district court yesterday. Among the cases heard were the following:

Town of Manitou against the First National bank, plaintiff's demurrer to the defendant's answer overruled.

Roswell P. Russell against W. S. Montgomery, defendant's demurrer overruled.

Mitchell et al. against Stucker et al., dismissed.

Joseph York against H. A. Scurr, defendant's motion to compel plaintiff to state causes of action specifically, sustained.

In the divorce case of Louisiana Musser against J. E. Musser a stipulation was filed by the attorneys. The plaintiff waives all claims to alimony, defendant agrees to pay the plaintiff's attorney fees, and to pay the indebtedness on the plaintiff's home.

Three new suits were filed in the county court. T. M. S. Rhett began suit against John P. Degnon to recover $250 said to be due him for attorney fees. James Newbury filed a replevin suit against Charles Zobrist, as principal, and George Hackley, constable. The appeal from the justice courts of the case of A. H. Wilson against Thomas J. Jones was also filed.

Dairymen Will Organize Tomorrow

All except two of the dairies in the vicinity of Colorado Springs will probably be represented at a meeting to be held tomorrow evening for the purpose of forming an organization of dairymen. The new organization will immediately adopt a scale of prices for milk and the rate will be higher than that now in effect.

A preliminary meeting of those interested was held last night. It was then ascertained that all the dairymen except Sinton Bros. and the proprietors of the Rustic Home dairy are willing to form a protective organization. It was decided to hold the meeting to form a permanent organization tomorrow evening at Union Labor hall. After the organization is effected a scale of prices will be adopted. The scale printed in Sunday's Gazette will probably be adopted.

Fifteen dairies will be represented in the new organization, it is said, among them being the Broadmoor, Brookside, Austin Bluffs, Roswell, Thomas Bros., two dairies, Cochran & Massey, Knowlton, Swiss, and Horn.

The meeting tomorrow will be held at 6 o'clock in the evening.

NEW HAVEN ANNUAL MEETING

Was Held Yesterday---Treasurer Shows About $1,600 in the Treasury--Good Development Work Is Being Done.

The annual meeting of the New Haven Gold Mining company was held yesterday in the offices of the company in this city and the old board of directors and officers was re-elected by a good representation of the stockholders, represented at the meeting in person or by proxy.

The reports submitted to the meeting showed that there was about $1,600 in the treasury, and that good work was now going on in the property. The company owns the Eclipse No. 1 claim on Raven hill, adjoining the Joe Dandy, and during the last two years something like $12,000 has been produced by lessees. Of this amount $4,000 was produced in 1900 and $8,000 in 1901.

A good strike was made some time ago in the first level of the new workings, from which most of the ore has been shipped, and the lessees are still making occasional shipments from that part of the mine. There is a lot of 10 tons of sparkling ore out now which has not yet been settled for, and some ore is now being saved. The lessees recently started to sink the shaft below the 200-foot point, and sinking is now in progress. No further stop will be made until the 290-foot point is reached. The prospecting which has been done in the 200-foot level has failed to disclose the ore shoot from which the operators have been producing in the first level.

There are several good veins crossing the New Haven property and good ore has been found in several different places in the mine, but always the values have been more of a sensational than a substantial nature. It is thought that when greater depth is acquired, the ore will be more regular and permanent. The property is in the hands of strong lessees who are working with a plant of machinery.

C. C. CONSOLIDATED MEETING

Was Held Yesterday and the Old Board Re-elected---Property on Gold Hill Is Showing Up Encouragingly.

The annual meeting of the Cripple Creek Consolidated company was held yesterday noon in the offices of the company in this city and the following board of directors was re-elected to serve for the ensuing year: J. F. Humphrey, Irving Howbert, J. V. Hayes, John G. Shields and D. I. Christopher. This is the board which has managed the affairs of the company for several years.

A large representation of the stock attended the meeting, and reports were presented by the different officers which showed the affairs of the company to be in a satisfactory condition. The reports are to be printed and given to the public at a later date.

Briefly the report shows the property to have been fairly well developed during the year, although the Florence claim, under the company's work, had shown no ore. The strikes on the Colorado Boss claims furnished some very agreeable information to impart to the stockholders.

Lessee Terrill on the No. 1 is now sinking a shaft on his ore and is now down to a depth of 50 feet where he finds that the shoot is pitching out. He will probably follow the ore to sink a straight shaft later, after he has got it developed. He is also going to crosscut from the bottom of an old 50-foot shaft.

On the No. 3 claim the lessees have opened a good body of ore and are now saving a second shipment. Returns from this ore were received a week or so ago which indicated values of about one and one-half ounces. Several papers in the state in mentioning the returns confused them with those of the ore opened on the other lease which runs much higher.

The new board of directors has not yet met to elect officers, but it is thought that the old officers will be re-elected.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

There has been some complaint that the figures for the November production of Cripple Creek are too low. The majority of papers in the state gave them as a little less than $2,200,000 which is accepted as a fair and conservative figure. The calculation was based on data furnished directly by the mills and smelters, and is as nearly correct as any approximate calculation can be. The amount produced in November fell somewhat below the output of October, where it was expected that an increase would be made, but the showing is so extraordinary for a camp of the size of Cripple Creek that no one is disappointed because it cannot be exceeded.

WOODS INVESTMENT CO. START ON MAYBEL TUNNEL.

The Woods Investment company has had an electric motor installed on the property of the Maybel tunnel which is located on Wilson creek. It is the intention of the Woods company to commence operations on that ground at an early date. They will do a large amount of development work. The work that has already been accomplished upon this property has disclosed good ore and a fissure vein has been located in the workings. It is these favorable indications that warrant the carrying forward of more work on the tunnel. It is thought that with systematic working such as is characteristic of the Woods people the mine will enter the shipping list within a very short time.

FORTY-TON SHIPMENT FROM HAPPY DAY CLAIM.

The Cripple Creek-Colorado Mining company, which owns and operates the Happy Day lode, located on Gold hill, sent out a shipment of 40 tons of ore yesterday. The ore that composes this shipment was not taken out in stoping but sinking [illegible] ment. In the lowest levels of the property that have been so far explored a cross vein was encountered. This new vein has been found to carry some very high grade ore and the width of the vein so far has been found to be two feet. The assays that have been taken from the vein and some of the ore that composes the shipment just sent out run as high as $80 in gold to the ton. The local manager of the property is Mr. B. C. Mullen and the majority of the stock is controlled by capitalists in Grand Rapids, Mich.

GOOD INDICATIONS ON COW MOUNTAIN PROPERTIES.

Good assays are being obtained from a number of Cow mountain properties which is the northeast boundary of the camp. It is reported from Denver that on one of the properties that is being worked by the Buford company has obtained assays from a body of ore reported to be six feet in width that runs from a few dollars a ton to about $90 per ton.

There is another persistent rumor current to the effect that a large body of ore has been cut in a tunnel on Cow mountain, but details are still lacking. Cow mountain of all the promontories outside the belt would seem to be more advantageous for mineral bearing rock than any that could be mentioned for the reason that numerous phonolite and porphyry dikes cut the formation.

On school section 16, north of Grassy seven blocks of ten acres each are being worked. Some good ore is being mined on block 9 on the La Montaigne lease at the 350-foot level and steady shipments are being sent out.

WATER IN MARY McKINNEY HAS RECEDED.

Some time ago the water in the Mary McKinney mine was a serious problem and the manner in which this company solved the water problem has been watched with a great deal of interest. Some six weeks ago the manager, Mr. George L. Keener, stated that the water was receding so fast that should it continue at that rate there would not be enough water in the mine to run the boiler to the engine on the first of January. An officer of the company now states that the water has almost entirely disappeared from the fifth level of the workings and the flow in the lower level is about 200 gallons a minute and this is scarcely nothing and is very easily handled by the pumping facilities.

The mine is in splendid condition and is keeping up its steady production.

MUCH DEVELOPMENT WORK DONE ON BOB LEE.

Heavy development work is being carried on by the Bob Lee Mining company in its property on Tenderfoot hill. Energetic and systematic operations are being pushed along. At this time a crosscut is being driven from the 300-foot level. The drift has been run south from the shaft to a length of 300 feet where a crosscut has been started east to intersect the dikes that are known to exist in the property. The company employs two drifts alone in the driving of this crosscut.

There are two other dikes in this hill that should be cut by a crosscut run in [illegible]

NOV. PRODUCTION FOR WILD HORSE AND INDEPENDENCE.

The gross value of the production from the Wild Horse mine, on Bull hill, during the month of November, was $210,000. This large value in gold ore was taken out by five men. The vein matter is of such a character that a large proportion of it can be easily picked down. The production next month from the Wild Horse shoot, it is calculated, will be even greater than last month, and will reach close to $250,000 gross.

During the two last days of November 770 tons of ore was shipped out from Stratton's Independence. The total for the month from this mine amounted to 8,000 tons.

On Saturday alone the Independence shipped a little more than 400 tons of ore.

The Cripple Creek Sampling company handled 11,000 tons of ore from its Bull hill sampler in November. The ore averaged $45 a ton.

SOME SHIPMENTS MADE IN THE PAST FEW DAYS.

The total output from the Burns of the Acacia company made by lessees will approximate 250 tons of an average value of $60. The best showing has been made by the Monarch Leasing company, operating on the main workings. This concern has recently started to crosscut at a depth of 600 feet for the ore shoot in the 500-foot level. The lessees sent out a good-sized shipment on Monday.

The True Blue Leasing company, working on the Mitchell, owned by the Pinnacle company, and situated on the north slope of Bull hill, sent out a shipment yesterday of about 50 tons of ore. This block of ground was worked for a long time under lease by Charles J. Moore, the mining engineer, who managed to take out enough ore to pay the running expenses. According to assays the ore will run in the neighborhood of $70 a ton.

A 25-ton shipment was sent out yesterday from the St. Clair lease on the Wilson of the Free Coinage company. The average value of the ore will be about $60 to the ton.

A small shipment of ore will go out tomorrow from the Santa Rita, on Squaw mountain.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Dec. 2. The mart opened this morning with prices inclined to be stationary, remaining at a low mark reached last week, and some cases declining fractionally. The trading was good only in isolated instances, and the activity in preferred prospects list had considerably subsided, giving the mines list the most conspicuous position in the distribution of the trading. The trading was done in Acacia which sold at 12 and A.-J. came next selling very low at 5¼. Consolidated was low, but Butterfly manifested much strength at 22 and Dollar was firm at 11. Elkton was very active, selling to the amount of about 20,000 shares, and fluctuated considerably during the call. The opening sale was at $1.50, after which the shares declined as low as $1.49½, and the close was a few points higher. Findley sold at 8½, Gold Dollar at 11 and Isabella recovered to 35½ under excellent trading. El Paso was in considerable demand at the lower prices, and closed stronger at 65⅞ and Lexington advanced to 6⅞. Work was very low at 8½. Calera sold again at 21 and Sunset-Eclipse at 10⅝. Sedan was stationary at 4.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 2. Decided weakness developed in the stock market today after some early exhibition of strength, and the last prices for the day show considerable net losses and all of the earlier gains wiped out. The principal factor in the early strength was the recovery in Amalgamated Copper and the decided rebound in the price of raw copper in London. The reaction was based on the gold exports and apprehensions that the president's message to be sent to congress tomorrow would take strong grounds against great combinations of corporations, with unfavorable effect upon the market values of their shares. A flurry developed in the call money market which later in the day accentuated the weakness in the closing dealings in stocks. Professional bear operators were active in the decline and followed vigorous manipulative tactics, but they met with little resistance to their efforts in the way of supporting orders and the market was apparently left unprotected. The resulting uncovering of stop loss orders dislodged some large amounts of stock, especially among the industrials, the transcontinental railways and the Vanderbilts which have been lifted on persistent reports of deals and mergers. The violence of the recovery in raw copper in London pointed to the conclusion that Saturday's demoralized break was due to speculative short selling or that later information was changed from that which prompted the selling. The recovery in Amalgamated Copper reached to 76¾c, but the stock slumped again to 72¾c, helping to upset the market. Louisville & Nashville, Southern Railway preferred, Southern Pacific and Sugar were prominent features of the upward movement and Long Island became strong and active at an advance of 4¾c. The announcement of gold exports to the amount of $2,000,000 was the turning point of the market, although considerable resistance was offered to the decline after the announcement was made. The outward movement of gold had been generally expected and speculators for the advance tried to belittle its importance. Their efforts were partly successful until the party of reaction was reinforced by the anxiety over the effect of the president's message and possible congressional action on the subject of combinations and the flurry in call money. The earlier ease of the money market and the lateness of the hour at which the rise in rates occurred gave rise to the supposition that it might be partly due to manipulation. There was a large disbursement of dividends and interest during the day, but the effect of such disbursements is likely to be somewhat belated in the New York money market. There was a drop in New York exchange at Chicago to 40 cents discount which indicated some renewed requirements for funds at that center.

Professionals and pool operators were active and there was no evidence of a large share in the transactions by outsiders. The bond market was moderately active and irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,230,000. United States preferred 2s advanced ¼ per cent. on the last call.

The London Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 2. Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram:

The stock market today had a more cheerful tone on a renewal of the rumors from Brussels that steps are in contemplation for an end of Boer hostilities. Another favorable factor was a rally in copper of £4 to 61½ to the ton. Rio Tintos closed at 43, after having touched 43½. The American department opened steady. L. & N., St. Paul & Atchison were above parity. New York gave early support to United States Steel, Southern Pacific and Louisville & Nashville. The latter spurted to 11" and then New York sales of Union Pacific caused a see-saw movement. The close was dull.

The re-payment of £1,000,000 to the Bank of England considerably taxed the market resources. Gold in bars is 77s 9¾d on continued Austrian demand. Silver is 25 1-16 on New York sales.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Dec. 2. Heavy buying orders from the country struck the wheat pit today all unprepared for a bull movement after Saturday's weakness and in the whirl of speculation sent wheat prices climbing. December wheat closing 1c up and May wheat 1¼@1⅜c advanced, both December and May corn ⅞c higher and May oats a shade higher. Provisions closed unchanged to 2½c up.

Wheat was easily the leader over everything else on the floor and ruled uniformly strong. The speculation was the heaviest in weeks and of the kind traders have been longing and hoping for. Cables were a trifle down, but were considered remarkably firm considering conditions here at the last session. Northwestern receipts allowed a marked falling off, though they were still heavy. The amount of breadstuffs on passage had decreased 2,840,000 bushels but the strongly bullish argument was the fact that this was delivery day for December options and something under 500,000 bushels was all that was delivered. Added to this was the continued report of bad weather in the southwest for the winter crop. This aggregation of bullish arguments started prices upward with a boom. Even the bearish report of an increase of 3,484,000 bushels in the visible supply had only a temporary depressing effect. December opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 75@73¾c, sold up to 74½c and closed strong, 1c up at 74@74¼c. May opened ⅛c higher to lower at 77¼@77⅜c, touched 78½c and closed strong, 1¼@1⅜c up at 78¼@78⅜c. Local receipts were 87 cars, 19 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 1,090 cars, making a total for the three points of 1,177 cars against 1,475 last week and 1,028 a year ago. World's shipments were 8,220,000 bushels against 7,854,000 bushels last week. Primary receipts were 1,525,000 bushels compared with 1,364,000 bushels last year. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 786,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 25 loads taken for export and 300,000 bushels were worked here for export.

The corn pit was almost deserted for wheat. Trade was dull and ruled easier early. Cables were lower and brought lower prices at the opening, both December and May starting unchanged to ⅛c down. Stocks on passage were increased 1,384,000 bushels and world's shipments were 2,706,000 bushels more than expected. Local stocks were decreased. Local receipts were small and bullish at 71 cars. The wheat bulge was the strongest bull influence, but the dullness overbalanced everything else and December closed only steady, ⅛c up at 62½c, and May ⅛c up at 64⅞c.

Oats experienced a steady and indifferent sort of market. There was some slight buoyancy reflected from wheat, but the trade by commission houses was scattered and there was only a little doing in a local way. Cash buying was still good at better prices at the river than here. Country acceptances and receipts were reported falling off. May opened ⅛@¼c higher, fluctuated narrowly and closed steady, a shade higher at 43¼@43⅜c. Receipts were 211 cars.

Provisions sagged off early on the heavy run of hogs at the yards. There was a good recovery later on a fair country demand. Offerings were mainly local. English houses were the principal sellers. January pork opened 12½c down and closed 2½c up at $16.25. January lard unchanged at $9.55; January ribs unchanged at $8.27½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 80 cars; corn, 135 cars; oats, 255 cars; hogs, 45,000 head.

The Metal Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 2. Tin was decidedly lower at New York today caused by unloading of spot supplies. Trading was active at times and the market finally closed weak with spot quoted at $25.75. At London, however, trading was slow and values were without change, thus spot was quoted at £115, 2s 6d and futures at £105, 5s. Copper in London had a reaction today and before the close of business values had reached a point £1 above Friday's close, with spot quoted at £61, 12s 6d and futures at £60, 2s 6d. Trading was very active. Locally a slow market was quoted, but a steady feeling prevailed in copper, with Lake quoted at 17 and casting and electrolytic at 16⅜@⅝. Exports of copper during November amounted to 6,637 tons, making a total of 83,588 tons for the past 11 months, or a decrease of 57,029 tons, as contrasted with last year's figures for the same period. Lead at New York and in London closed at $4.37½ and £11, 1s 3d, respectively. Spelter declined 2s 6d at London to £16 for spot, while at New York the market was quiet and nominally quoted at $4.30. Iron markets were steady but unchanged. Pig iron warrants $10.50@11.50. No. 1 northern foundry $16@16, No. 2 foundry, southern, $14@15; No. 1 foundry, southern, $14.50@15.50; No. 1 foundry, soft, $14.50@15. Glasgow iron warrants closed at 55s 9d and Middlesboro closed at 42s 9d.

NAPOLEONIC MUSEUM.

The Most Conspicuous Man of all History and His Sale of Louisiana.

St. Louis, Nov. 21. The proposition is being seriously considered to have a Napoleonic museum as a feature of the World's fair. In as much as Napoleon sold the Louisiana territory to the United States, and the World's fair is held in celebration of the centennial of that event such a museum is regarded as a very appropriate feature for the exposition. While it may not be possible to obtain the originals of some of the more valuable Napoleonic relics, it has been ascertained that many most interesting things are available. Napoleon is the most conspicuous man of all history, and the widespread interest which clusters about his memory will tend to bring to this proposed western shrine innumerable persons curious to see the things that were his, and to study his marvelous career from material things close at hand.

Former United States Senator Thomas H. Carter, president of the National commission of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has suggested the stationing of a regiment of United States soldiers on the grounds during the exposition, where they would be maintained at the same cost as at an army post. They could act as a guard to the government and foreign exhibits. By having different regiments to succeed one another at intervals, an opportunity would be given a great many soldiers to see the fair, and a model encampment of regulars would be an interesting sight for visitors. The adoption of this suggestion would be apt to lead to a week of military parades, in which crack regiments of militia from all the states would participate.

The power of the Texas legislature to appropriate money for a World's Fair exhibit being in doubt, there is a movement on foot to have Governor Sayers appoint a state commission to perfect an organization extending into every county of the state for the purpose of raising $50,000 by private subscription, and to use the money for a Texas exhibit at St. Louis. Former Lieutenant - Governor Gibbs, of Dallas, who is pushing this movement, has conferred with the general officers of all the railroads in the state and says they will duplicate any amount raised by subscription, making the Texas exposition fund $400,000. If $200,000 should be raised by other subscriptions.

The Iowa commission of the World's fair has visited St. Louis to choose a site for the Iowa building. Thomas Stivers of Burlington has been added to the commission.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet in St. Louis in 1903.

The World's fair commission of the Indian Territory has undertaken to raise $100,000 by popular subscription for the territorial exhibit.

Representatives of St. Louis singing societies in the North American Saengerbund met November 20 and organized an executive board for the National Saengerfest, which is to celebrate the Louisiana Purchase centennial in St. Louis in 1903.

Honorary World's fair commissioners of Arkansas are favoring an appropriation of $150,000 from the state for representation at the exposition of 1903.

The Southwest Miners association of Los Angeles, Cal., has begun the preparation of an exhibit for the World's fair which is to contain many novelties and cabinet specimens of gold, sapphire, ruby and onyx.

Kansas teachers are preparing to show the work of all grades of the public schools at the world's fair, and will display pictures of many of the fine school buildings of that state.

The Wisconsin board of commissioners for the Louisiana Purchase exposition held its first meeting at Madison, November 19. Ex-Governor Hoard, the leader of the Wisconsin dairy industry, was elected president; William Gender, of Milwaukee, vice-president; Senator J. H. Stout, of Menominee, treasurer; Prof. W. A. Scott, of the Wisconsin state university, [illegible] tention being to fill the office permanently with a salaried secretary. The commissioners favored a far better exhibit at St. Louis than has been made at any exposition heretofore.

The Missouri society of New York city is to have its annual banquet December 7, and expects President Francis and Vice-president Corwin H. Spencer, of the Louisiana Purchase exposition company, to respond to World's fair toasts.

The Missouri state conference of charities and corrections, in session at Columbia November 19, adopted a resolution approving and endorsing the establishment of a Hall of Philanthropy as the women's memorial at the Louisiana Purchase exposition in 1903.

The National Commission of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has been in session all the week at St. Louis working on rules and adjusting the question of authority between the National Commission and the local company. Regarding the report that a postponement of the fair was necessary, President David R. Francis said to the commission: "All advice of postponement and all declarations that postponement is necessary are entirely without the sanction of the Exposition authorities. Every official of the company is firmly of the opinion that the fair will be entirely ready to open May [illegible]

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of the disease is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. That remedy is used in this way by many thousands of mothers, and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

TWO VALUES.

THERE are two values to every purchase what it costs and what it pays you. Cork costs 8 cents a pound, but if you are drowning half a mile from shore, its value would be "not what you pay for cork, but what cork saves you." When a woman buys soaps she often confuses the two values. She sees only what she pays. She overlooks what she receives. Now a single cake of Ivory Soap pays back from ten to twenty times its cost in the saving it effects. Test it yourself! Vegetable Oil Soap. Ivory white. It floats!

STRIKE IN THE MIDGET

Smelting Grade Ore in the 600-Foot Level--Steady Output From Lease on Eclipse.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 2. An excellent strike has been made in the Midget company's property. At the 600 foot level the winze sunk from this depth is in smelting grade ore and the high values that are at present found in the bottom appear to be permanent throughout. So far little work has been done on the Midget outside of a small amount of sinking and it is difficult to determine the full extent of the strike.

Cunningham, Wilson & Co., leasing the Eclipse of the New Haven at the summit of Raven hill, are making a steady output of screenings, which return values of about two ounces in gold to the ton. The lessees sent out a carload last week, and have another carload of the same grade ready to go out tomorrow. The ore is coming from the 800-foot level, where the lessees have done a small amount of work. Sinking has just been resumed in the shaft, it being the intention of the lessee to get to the 400-foot depth as quickly as possible.

Wood & Conners, leasing on the Twin Sisters on Raven hill, are prepared for some rapid sinking in their new shaft, which is down to the 75-foot depth. The new plant of machinery is in good working order. The shaft is to go to a depth of 175 feet, where the lessees expect to cut the main Twin Sisters vein and ore shoot on its dip.

The Sunset-Eclipse company is installing a new 200-gallon pump.

The output from the Stratton's Independence for the month of November amounted to 5,900 tons of ore of a grade about $35 average. The mine is increasing its rate of shipments, and has sent out an average of about 375 tons during the past three or four days.

The Bull Hill sampler of the Cripple Creek Ore Sampling company settled for 11,000 tons of ore during November. The average grade of the mineral was close to $45 per ton.

The Sunset-Eclipse Cons. Co. is to have better railroad connections. The spurs from the Midland & F. & C. C. are to be built in connecting with the ore house and coal bunkers within a short time, when the Eclipse will get back to its old shipping position.

FOR SALE REAL ESTATE

SPILLANE & KEARNS,
Wood Ave. and Washington St.

We have had all kinds of luck with our new houses on Wood avenue and Washington street. All the world has come out to see them, and, just as we thought, some of the visitors have found our ideas so good that they have taken them without our leave and put them into their own homes. That is all right in a way, but like all people who don't quite know how to originate, they cannot use the ideas correctly. Thus the houses which we have seen that are modeled after our Swiss and Chinese effects are beautifully mixed up and belong to some style "not yet discovered." Next week we will have two houses shaped up that will open the eyes of all the world that loves something beautiful. Just come out and see our new houses and look at the interior of our other houses nearly finished any time from 8 to 6 p. m.

We have a few houses of our own for rent:

A 6-roomed house on Washington st.

A 9-roomed house on Tejon st., 2000 block.

An 8-roomed house, fully modern, at Bijou st., west side, 5 minutes' walk from postoffice.

All houses new and modern. Address us, box 1071.

Don't miss trading at Polin's during the 5c week.

Hansel and Gretel.

The most charming of all modern operas will be performed at the Antlers hotel next Tuesday evening under the direction of Mr. Crampton.

Its exquisite melodies have won favor everywhere. The dainty and vivacious opening of the first act, which ends with the weirdly dramatic scene in which the father, horror-stricken, rushes out to seek his children.

The lovely forest scenes, which will be accompanied by orchestra, containing the piquant cuckoo duet, the beautiful evening prayer, the fine dream music, and the charming fairy songs of the sandman and dewman. The brilliant finale, in which the parents at last find the children, completes an opera which for exquisite melody, dramatic power and picturesqueness is unapproachable in modern music.

Special scenery ... will be used on this occasion. The program will conclude with "Cups and Saucers," one of the brightest musical comedies ever written.

Sale of seats opens this morning (Tuesday) at Hext Music Co.

Millions in Sugar Beets This year.

Over $100,000 in cash was paid last Saturday by the owners of the beet sugar factories at Loveland, Rocky Ford, Sugar City and Grand Junction to the farmers of the territory surrounding the four places. This is only one of the six or eight payments for beets that will comprise the sum total of the shares of the agriculturists alone in the exceedingly youthful, but wonderfully lusty, industry.
